Product Description

INS' hand-feeling moisturizing artificial rose flowers will bring not only beauty to your living room, but also the perfect fusion of comfort and environmental protection.

INS hand-feeling moisturizing rose artificial flower:

This INS touch moisturizing rose is ideal for your living room decoration, featuring three key dimensions: high simulation, environmentally friendly materials and bendable shape.

High simulation:

Each real feel silk rose has been carefully designed with a high degree of simulation and feels like real petals. Detailed petal gradation and realistic colors make the entire bouquet look lifelike.

Environmentally friendly material, non-toxic and odorless:

We use environmentally friendly materials to ensure that the products are environmentally friendly, non-toxic and odor-free, allowing you to use them with confidence. INS' moisturizing real touch roses are the choice for a healthy and green life.

Bendable shape:

The real touch silk roses flower stems have built-in flexible iron wires that can be bent into any shape according to personal preferences to adapt to different placement scenarios. This makes the roses more personalized and meets your creative needs for floral arrangements.
